Religious Paintings

Bayeu Subias's religious paintings are a testament to his profound faith and artistic sensitivity. His depictions of biblical scenes and sacred figures are imbued with a sense of devotion and reverence. Here are a few notable examples:

- The Immaculate Conception: In this ethereal painting, the Virgin Mary is portrayed as the immaculate conception, a symbol of purity and grace. Her figure radiates a heavenly glow, surrounded by a host of cherubs and angels in vibrant colors.

- The Virgin of the Rosary: This painting depicts the Virgin Mary bestowing the rosary upon Saint Dominic. The Madonna's serene expression and the elaborate details of her gown and the surrounding landscape showcase Bayeu Subias's attention to detail.
